

PRIVACY NOTICE FOR HABITAT FOR HUMANITY HOME BUYERS

Habitat will collect non-public personal information about you from the following sources:

- Information we receive from you on your application and documents.
- Information about your transactions with Habitat.
- Information we received from consumer reporting agencies.
- Information we receive from you during your interview.

Habitat may disclose the following kinds of non-public information about you:

- Information from your application, such as: name, address, social security number, income, age, assets, family size, ethnicity and other information from your application.
- Information about your transactions with Habitat, such as payment histories or amounts due Habitat.
- Information gathered from reporting agencies, such as credit histories.
- Information gathered from interviews with Habitat.

Habitat may disclose non-public personal information regarding you to the following types of third parties in connection with normal operating practices:

- Financial service providers, such as mortgage servicing agents or banks providing loan origination or funding.
- Nonprofit organizations, public sector agencies or governments.

Habitat may also disclose non-public information about you to non-affiliated third parties as permitted by law, in connection with our normal operating practices.

Habitat does not disclose any non-public personal information about you to anyone except permitted by law. Habitat maintains physical, electronic and procedural safeguards that comply with federal regulations to guard your non-public personal information.

Client Signature: _____ Date: _____

Client Signature: _____ Date: _____